Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

NAVY DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Dear Mr. Baird:

At the beginning of each academic year the Naval Intelligence School conducts a course in the "Organization for National Security" for approximately fifty officer students in the lieutenant-lieutenant commander range. This course is designed to give the students a background in organization as a basis for further intelligence studies.

It would be greatly appreciated if a member of the Central Intelligence Agency could present, as a part of this course, a lecture on "The Intelligence Community and the Central Intelligence Agency." The most fitting date would be Friday 14 September 1962, between the hours of 1330 and 1530. It is anticipated that there would be a question and answer period following the lecture. [redacted] of the Agency staff, has given this lecture in past years and his presentations have been extremely well received.

Should this request receive favorable consideration, further details, if necessary, may be arranged through LCDR James R. GREEN, USN, the course coordinator for the School staff. LCDR GREEN may be contacted on telephone code 142, extension 325.

All student officers are cleared for material up to and including Top Secret.

Sincerely yours,

B. E. WIGGIN
Captain, U.S. Navy
Director
